THE MILLER FACULTY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM: SUPPORTING IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY'S MOST INNOVATIVE AND ENGAGED TEACHERS

Action Requested: Receive the presentation.

Executive Summary: The Miller Faculty Fellowship is an annual competitive grant program administered by the Iowa State University (ISU) Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching. Since 1996, over 800 ISU faculty have enhanced undergraduate academic programs and developed innovative approaches to enrich student learning. Outcomes of the Fellowship include development of new courses, minors, and teaching environments, as well as overall improvement of faculty teaching. Many Miller Fellows leverage their projects into scholarly presentations, articles and additional granting opportunities, which directly aligns with the University's strategic plan. Dr. Marcketti will highlight some recent exemplars in this brief presentation.

Presenter: Dr. Sara Marcketti is the Director of the Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching and a Professor in the Apparel, Events and Hospitality Management department. Marcketti provides leadership for the center in meeting its mission to support, promote and enhance teaching effectiveness and student learning at Iowa State. She provides individual faculty consultations and facilitates faculty and graduate student workshops on documenting your teaching, peer evaluations and effective teaching practice.
