UNIVERSITY PRESENTATION: HIGH-IMPACT EDUCATIONAL PRACTICES

Action requested: Receive the presentation.

Summary: Research has identified a number of educational practices that are particularly effective at supporting student learning and successful outcomes for college students. Often referred to as high-impact educational practices (or HIPs), many of these activities can be found at the three Regent universities. The presenters will share examples and discuss the positive outcomes.

Presenters:

Ann Marie VanDerZanden, Iowa State University

Frank Peters, Iowa State University

Tanya Uden-Holman, University of Iowa

Deedee Heisted, University of Northern Iowa
