

MEMORANDUM

To: Board of Regents
From: Board Office
Subject: Revisions to the Board of Regents Policy Manual
Date: October 20, 2004

Recommended Actions:

Give final approval to revisions to Chapter IV -- Personnel of the Board of Regents Policy Manual:

Executive Summary:

Final Approval Revisions to Chapter IV – Personnel are presented for final approval. The proposed revisions are detailed in Attachment A.

Background and Analysis:

Standard revision process takes two Board meetings Changes are proposed to the Policy Manual as a result of editorial review and Regent comments. The traditional revision process for substantive revisions involves initial review and comment by the institution and the Board (the “first reading”) and then providing final Board approval for publication at a subsequent Board meeting.

Revisions to the Policy Manual that have been approved by the Board to date are listed in Attachment B.

Final approval Revisions to Chapter IV -- Personnel are presented for final approval. The revisions are mainly editorial in nature and will bring the language in the policy to reflect current practice. The policy for educational assistance in the Board Office (§4.42) is a new addition. The revisions appear in Attachment A. The revisions include those items brought up during discussion at the September meeting.

IV. Personnel

4.04 Appointment and Review of Presidents, Superintendents, and Executive Director

The Board of Regents, State of Iowa, is responsible under Iowa Code § 262 for the selection and review of institution heads and the Executive Director. The following guidelines describe the general process to conduct searches for institution heads and for the Executive Director, as well as their appointment. The specific procedures to be used in a given search will be determined by the Board and will reflect the unique environment of the institution or the Board Office.

4.05 Other Board Appointments Recommended by Institution Heads

- B. Provosts, vice presidents, and directors of major units shall be nominated by the institution head for appointment by the Board. Appointments to these positions become effective on the date designated by the Board.

The institutional head shall inform the Board of an impending vacancy in any of these positions and shall apprise the Board of plans for a search for a successor. The Board shall be kept fully informed of the progress of the search and the institution head shall inform the Board of the finalists before a nomination is made. If the compensation or duties of the successful candidate are to be substantially different from those of the previous person in the position, the Board shall be informed.

4.06 Register of Personnel Changes

- B. The Executive Director of the Board shall ~~docket~~ place on the Board agenda the registers of personnel changes from each institution and the Board Office. Approval of the registers shall constitute confirmation of the personnel changes contained therein.

4.39 Conflict of Interest of Public Officers and Employees – Gifts (see Iowa Code Chapter § 68B)

B. Lobbyist Registration

Lobbyists are required to register annually with that branch or branches of state government with which they expect to lobby. For the Executive Branch they are required to provide a list of applicable agencies or offices. The Campaign Finance Disclosure Commission requires each individual lobbyist to report campaign contributions or gifts on a monthly basis when the General Assembly is in session and thereafter on or before July 31, October 31 and January 31. and the sponsoring organization or agency for each lobbyist is to submit a report of salaries and expenditures for lobbying activities for each lobbyist on January 31 and July 31 of each calendar year.

D. Guidelines for Regent Institutions

8. Institutional heads can accept gifts only on behalf of the institutions and then direct them appropriately to a charitable organization such as a museum.

4.40 Inclement Weather

The Board of Regents recognizes that inclement weather may create emergency conditions that make it difficult or unreasonable to conduct normal business and educational activities at the Regent institutions. Therefore, the Board delegates decisions on temporary closings, cancellations or curtailing of normal institutional functions due to inclement weather to the institutional head and central administration of each Regent institution, according to their individual policies. The Executive Director and/or the Board Office should be notified immediately whenever such decisions are made.

4.41 Policy on Interinstitutional Staff Sharing

From time to time various emergency and other situations may occur at one or more of the Regent institutions requiring additional, temporary, assistance from outside the campus. The institutional heads are hereby authorized and encouraged, to provide assistance to the extent possible and to send and receive volunteer employees and resources from other Regent institution(s) under such circumstances. It is understood that the receiving institution will reimburse the sending institution(s) for the cost of such assistance or other arrangements as agreed to by the parties.

4.42 Policy on Board Office Educational Assistance

Educational Assistance

Educational assistance includes reimbursement for tuition, fees, books, or other expenses incurred by a Board Office employee in taking coursework for credit at an educational institution. The employee is expected to maintain everyday job responsibilities while taking this coursework.

1. Eligibility/Criteria

Any regular employee of the Board Office who has completed the equivalent of one year of full-time continuous service is entitled to consideration for the benefits provided under this program. (For example, an employee budgeted one-half time would be required to have been employed for at least two years in order to be eligible for the program.)

Attachment A

An employee receiving other financial assistance, such as scholarship aid, GI funds, etc., will be eligible to receive educational assistance to the extent that the sum total of all methods of reimbursement does not exceed 100 percent of tuition and fees.

Employees are required to first seek enrollment into evening and Saturday classes; tuition reimbursement may be granted for a maximum of four credit hours at one time.

If the necessary courses are not available during evenings and Saturdays, flex time and tuition reimbursement may be granted for a maximum of four credit hours at any one time.

When flex time is granted, the individual's work schedule will be modified to the extent feasible to accommodate class hours. However, merit staff employees may be expected to make up the time missed from work, and professional employees are expected to meet project deadlines.

2. Acceptable Courses of Study

This program is exclusively designed for school-related courses of study. Any course of study must be in an area that has a relationship to the tasks accomplished within the office, the requirements of the position the individual currently holds and/or requirements for the learning of skills for which the office has need.

The course must be taken from an accredited institution approved by the U.S. Department of Education. Short courses, workshops, CEU courses, etc., will not qualify unless they carry credit toward a degree or certificate.

3. Educational Institutions

A staff member may, under this program, attend any institution of higher learning within the state that is accredited by an organization approved by the United States Department of Education. In the statement, "accreditation" refers to a specific program of study that is approved or accredited by the profession, if any.

4. Reimbursement

An employee will be reimbursed for tuition and fees upon submission of an original paid receipt from the academic institution to the designated agency representative.

Prior to reimbursement, the employee must provide proof of successful completion of the course.

Successful completion of undergraduate course shall require attainment of at least a "C" grade, a "complete" or a "pass".

Successful completion of a graduate course shall require attainment of at least a "B" grade or "pass".

Successful completion of a vocational or correspondence course shall be recorded by submittal of an official certificate.

5. Termination of Employment

Any staff member who receives reimbursement for tuition shall agree to remain in the active employment of the Board Office after the receipt of such benefit for a period of one month for every unit of credit earned or to repay to the state of Iowa such compensation as the staff member shall have received. Months shall be counted beginning with the first full month of active employment following the official semester closing date of the institution wherein the employee is enrolled.
