2. Approval of Minutes

Roger Foelske presented the minutes for the October 8, 2008, meeting of the Council.

Action: It was requested that the minutes be amended by noting that financial audit committee was composed of Ben Allen and Roger Foelske and that Elizabeth Hoffman was a voting delegate for Iowa State University. The minutes were then approved as amended.

3. Treasurer's Report

Gary Steinke presented a statement of the council's income and expenditures for the period September 1, 2008 to December 31, 2008. As of December 31, 2008 the Council had a balance of $8,826.06 of which $5,704.62 was in the operational account, $1,910.77 in the Way-Up Conference account; and $1,210.67 in the Carol Kay Memorial Fund account. It was noted that $3,440.75 of the Council's operational account was utilized to fund the IPEDS conference hosted by the Council at Iowa State University.

Action: The treasurer's report was approved as presented.

4. Iowa Workforce Issues

Joe Mower of the Iowa Department of Workforce Development provided an overview of workforce issues. He stated that as the economy changes it is becoming more skills based as well as an increased need for greater flexibility in the workforce. There is also a greater need for adult basic education. To address the mismatch in terms of what skills employers are seeking, the Department is implementing a credentialing process that will certify an individual's career readiness. This credential will be available through local workforce offices. Employers considering relocation in the state are increasingly seeking information on the availability of individuals with nationally recognized skill credentials for their industrial sector.

5. Discussion on Institute of Tomorrow's Workforce

Ben Allen reported on the activities of Institute of Tomorrow's Workforce which he co-chairs with Max Phillips of Quest. The Institute was funded by the Iowa General Assembly for one year. It consists of fifteen members from the Regent's institutions, community colleges, K-12 school districts and Iowa businesses. It is in the final stages of drafting a report. The report will focus on the need to focus on technology and how to teach it in rural settings, the need for early childhood education, workforce productivity issues including the need for proficiency in what is being called 21st century skills. The presentation was followed by an in-depth discussion by the Council's members.

6. Update on Senior Year Plus

Roger Utman provided an overview of guidance that was released by the Department of Education concerning the Senior Year Plus initiative. He stated that a draft of administrative rules concerning the initiative will be released on February 11, 2009. He agreed to post the draft rules on the Council list-serve as soon as they are published. Currently, guidance is posted on the Department's website at the following address: www.iowa.gov/educate

B. Programs Notifications with Concerns

Iowa Wesleyan College

Mt Mercy and University of Iowa has registered concerns with the proposed programs by Iowa Wesleyan College. It was questioned if the proposed programs were an unnecessary duplication of existing programs. Representatives from Mt. Mercy stated that it was prepare to explore the feasibility of collaborating with Iowa Wesleyan College. Representatives from Iowa Wesleyan expressed their willingness to engage in such discussions. It was agreed to provide additional time for the parties to continue their discussions and if a positive resolution was reached, the Council’s Executive Committee was instructed to accept the proposal and the Council would then ratify it at its next meeting.

7. Updates from College Aid Commission

Keith Greiner provided an overview of the proposed revisions of the process for registration of out-of-state postsecondary institutions in the state of Iowa. The proposal would require some revisions of Chapter 261B and 261 which would transfer the duties for the registration of out-state institutions from the Secretary of State to the College Student Aid Commission.

8. Updates

Diana Gonzalez stated that the Fall Enrollment report has been released. This years enrollment report includes secondary students, it has been suggested that the Council consider separate reporting categories for these students and online students in future reports.

9. For the Good of the Order:

It was also announced that the next meeting of the Council will be held on April 15th at Mt. Mercy College in Cedar Rapids. The meeting was adjourned at 2 pm.
